The mind seems to reason that if the business of the country can withstand the swallowing up of $180,000,000 at Chisage, there is about six and a half miles longer than the Eastern. The Eastern The Eastern Marion, Upper Sandusky, Carey and Fostoria to Toledo, and the Western line is through Marysville, Kenton, Findlay and Bowling Green to Toledo.—

The Eastern has the advantage of being the Columbus & Toledo road, will, from the very necessity of their miles longer than the Eastern in the Columbus & Northwestern road so as to enable to the C. & H. V. Railroad to reach the Western coal market by the shortest route.

Now, if these premises are correct, the C. & H. V. interests will never require the Columbus and Toledo for the City in Ruins.
